Web Developer

After launching the flower delivery website, I decided to transition into web development.
Created a website-building platform and launched advertising campaigns.
Developed around 10 websites over a year (landing pages, multi-page sites, e-commerce stores).
Built using WordPress CMS.

CEO

Independently developed and launched an online flower delivery store in Moscow.
Negotiated contracts with flower suppliers.
Hired a florist and couriers.
Set up and managed advertising campaigns.
Initially handled multiple roles: manager, SEO specialist, marketer, and accountant.
Later delegated these responsibilities to hired staff.
Continued to oversee the website:
· Updates and price monitoring.
· Adding new products.
· Site improvements and technical adjustments.
